

Word Bank

今週教わった単語や熟語をこの中に記入してください。

Enrich and Engage

First World – developed countries like the USA, countries in Western Europe, Japan and Australia

Wi-Fi – short for Wireless Fidelity in which you can access to a network using radio waves, without needing to use wires

Trivial – not important

Decipher

Here are some real tweets from real people:

Zoe
@ZoeDouse

Had to wake up for the ironing lady to come and collect our clothes AND SHE STILL ISN'T HERE

Dave Ellis
@MelbDave

I just had a cup of tea with soy milk. It was one of the worst decisions I've ever made in my life.

Sabrina Ghayour
@SabrinaGhayour

Peeling pomegranates has to be one of the most painstaking tasks in the world

Demetrius Joyette ✓
@SLs.Joyette

So sick and tired of Apple products.

We live in a world where trivial issues bother us. Some of which include slow Wi-Fi connection, manual doors, phone battery dying, bad-tasting fruit and so on. This specific issues are called “First World problems” which became greatly popular in the social network site called Twitter. The phrase is used by netizens to shame the complainer.

Delve Deeper

1. Do you know Twitter? Are you on Twitter?
2. Have you experienced the same problems?
3. Can you give other examples of First World problems?
4. Do you complain about trivial things too?
5. In today's world, why do we complain about trivial things?